

Prevention first.
Train today.
Protect tomorrow.

MAKE THE PLEDGE.

Why is cyber security training important?

95%

Phishing remains the result of 95% of all successful cyberattacks worldwide

85%

85% of cyber breaches in 2020 involved human error

2/3

Nearly 2/3 customer would avoid doing business with those who have experienced a cyberattack in the past year

+6

On average, an employee will share a password with 6 other co-workers

92.4%

92.4 percent of malware is delivered as an attachment in a malicious email

30%

30% of phishing emails are opened and 12 percent of them are activated

47%

47% of individuals fall for phishing scam whilst working at home

667%

Barracuda Networks reported a 667% spike in COVID-19 related email attacks

70%

Security awareness training you can reduce the risk of socially engineered cyber threats by up to 70%

*References

<https://www.infosecmagazine.com/news/phishing-remains-top-attack-vector/>

<https://www.verizon.com/business/resources/reports/dbir/2021-masters-guide/introduction/>

<https://info.arcsolve.com/press-releases/arcsolve-research-un-covers-links-between-ransomware-consumer-purchasing-behavior-and-brand-loyalty>

<https://thedefenceworks.com/blog/does-security-awareness-training-work/> last pass

<https://thedefenceworks.com/blog/does-security-awareness-training-work/>

ness-training-work/

<https://thedefenceworks.com/blog/does-security-awareness-training-work/> Verizon

<https://touchstonesecurity.com/security-training/#:~:text=Comprehensive%20security%20awareness%20training%20is,and%20recovered%20from%20an%20attack.>

<https://www.infosecmagazine.com/news/covid19-drive-phishing-emails-667/>

<https://thedefenceworks.com/blog/does-security-awareness-training-work/>